“Lessons From Haman”

“I Won’t Let Anger Control Me!”

“Don’t sin by letting anger control you...” - Psalm 4:4a

This week, we continue our series called, “You Only Live Once”, or “YOLO.” We’re learning some important lessons about making our lives count! Since we only live once, we need to make sure we do our very best to honor God with our life and remain faithful to Him.

Ask/Discuss:

- What are some things that make you angry?
- How do you normally respond when things make you angry?

Say:

There are many things in life that can make us angry. From not getting our way, to attacks against those we love, many things can bring out the anger in us.

Anger is a powerful emotion. If we allow it to take control of our lives, it can bring some dangerous results. If we don’t allow God to help us with our anger - it can turn to bitterness.

Ask/Discuss:

- Have you ever allowed anger to take control of your life? Explain.
- Why should we ask for God’s help when we’re angry?

Say:

In the Bible Story this week, we learned from the story of Haman and how he reacted to Mordecai and the Jews. We learned that it is not a sin to become angry, but it is a sin to allow anger to control you.

Ask:

- What are some appropriate ways to act when you become angry?
- What can you do to avoid allowing anger to take control of your life?

Pray:

Pray that your children would begin to ask for God’s help when they become angry so they don’t allow their anger to control their lives or lead to bitterness.
